REGIONAL PROGRAMME COORDINATION

- The Programme Coordination Unit (PCU) is hosted by the Pacific Community's Geoscience Division in the Fiji Islands and possesses multidisciplinary expertise.
- The PCU facilitates the consolidation and sharing of knowledge to support the uptake of best-practice management approaches.
- The PCU supports the harmonization of results frameworks with the SAMOA Pathway and the Sustainable Development Goals.
- The PCU also guides the mainstreaming of gender and culture, and the effective engagement of young people, in programme delivery.
